

The Forest Time, the forest-focused magazine

Visitors to the Forêt Investissement website can now find a special forestry news section. This is our online magazine, known as "The Forest Time".

Since 2009, Forêt Investissement has met hundreds of people with a multitude of questions about buying a forest:

- How do you buy a forest?
- What are the tax arrangements for forests?
- How do I manage my forest?
- What type of forest production?

Our agency decided to provide some answers to these questions.

SHARING WHAT WE KNOW!

For centuries, the realm of the forest has been a closely guarded secret, but Forêt Investissement has decided to pass on and share its knowledge via The Forest Time magazine.

There's no need to be a mechanic if you want to buy a car, and you don't need to be a lumberjack to buy a forest! However, your car needs a mechanic and your forest will need a manager.

“ Because the forest should not be reserved for “those in the know”™, ForÃt Investissement has decided to share its knowledge via The Forest Time. ”

The wood sector is well organized and means any investor keen to follow through his acquisition can find support. The Forest Time provides information and answers to the questions newcomers, professionals, forest owners and future buyers find themselves asking. Who better than ForÃt Investissement to provide clear and relevant information? Who else would share their know-how with such passion?

Bringing together the leading experts on the rural sector to produce an online magazine to make the forest accessible to all Stakeholders in the forest, who are all professionals and experts in their respective fields, will contribute to The Forest Time, sharing their analyses, their skills and their know-how.

Experts here to help

The team includes forestry consultants, lumberjacks, notaries familiar with the rural sector, specialist financiers and even nursery growers. All of these professionals are on hand to assist buyers in the management of their forest or future acquisition.

Because the forest should not be reserved for “those in the know”™, ForÃt Investissement has decided to share its knowledge via The Forest Time.

The Forest Time is solely devoted to providing highly relevant information, from leading experts on the rural sector, to ensure the forest remains accessible to all.
